Cherbourg Port Nearly Isolated

LONDON, June 15.—American forces drove within 4½ miles of the last German transport lines out of Cherbourg today, partially isolating that great port, and to the northeast captured the coastal town of Quineville, four miles above Montebourg.

While British and Canadian troops absorbed furious German counter-attacks, mounting in intensity as fresh enemy divisions were thrown into the fighting around Caen at the eastern end of the 107-mile front, American forces gained ground steadily, across the neck of the Cherbourg peninsula and threatened to seal off completely the port, richest primary prize of the invasion campaign.

Seek Disclosure

McGeer Demands Vote on Hidden Bank Reserves

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—New demands for an early vote on the question of disclosure of inner reserves of the chartered banks were made yesterday at the Commons banking committee by G. McGeer, K.C. (L-Vancouver-British Columbia).

When the sitting opened, W. H. Moore (L-Ontario), chairman, remarked it was the 20th sitting of the committee.

Mr. McGeer said the time had been well spent. It would never be possible to say in the future that there was no opposition in the banking committee to hidden reserves. He said majorities had been right to fight, but minorities had the right to argue.

HELD OUT-OF-DATE

Continuation of inner reserves, said Mr. McGeer, was as out-of-date as the gold standard which now had been completely abandoned. There were inner reserves in the last depression and in every depression before that. They had done nothing to prevent the trade crises of boom and depression.

Mr. McGeer said he was in favor of extending charters with favorable improvements in the monetary system.

At the appropriate time he proposed to offer an amendment to provide a government guarantee of all bank deposits up to $5,000.

In arguing that reserves disclosed by inner reserves would be confidence in the banks, Mr. McGeer said the total deposits had increased by more than $1,000,000,000, but there had been no increase in disclosed reserves.

RISKS ARE TAKEN

The existence of inner reserves, he said, enabled the banks to take risks in supporting boom periods, knowing that they could sustain losses in a depression. They had no other reserves they could turn to claim down on bonds.

Since 1933 Canada had gone further with monetary reform than any other country with the possible exception of Russia.

Norman Jacques (S.C. Wetaskiwin), said either too much or too little had been said. He said the reserves were too small. He said that reason he would vote in favor of disclosure of the reserves.

Destroyers Sink 3 Nazi Minesweepers

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 15.—(AP)—Two Allied destroyers intercepted seven German minesweepers off the coast of France yesterday and sank three of them and seriously damaged the other four. Supreme Headquarters announced last night.

The communiqué said the Polish destroyer, Polonia, and the British destroyer, Aschani, intercepted the enemy vessels. The British destroyers, Minica and Seven, were also observed. One of the enemy vessels was observed, and one was seen to be damaged. The communiqué said that the Polonia was hit with a torpedo and the second was on fire. The communiqué announced.

FRESH DIVISIONS

Field dispatches from France said Marshal Erwin Rommel was thrown into infantry and armor divisions from all parts of France into a counter-attack of mounting intensity which the German high command said was "moving toward the climate."

At the eastern end of the Allied beachhead, bitter German opposition slowed the British and Canadian advance in the immediate area of Caen and savage struggles continued in and around Troarn, five miles to the east.

German armor counter-attacks against Tilly-sur-Seulles, 12 miles west of Caen, an official spokesman reported, indicating that Empire troops held the ruins of the village where some of the heaviest battles of the invasion campaign had been fought.

German armor struck heavily at Allied positions in the area of Villers-Bocage, where the British hold high ground commanding the town which at last reports appeared to be in enemy hands.

HEAVY NAVAL LOSSES

Heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans in the Tilly-Bocage-Villers-Bocage triangle where a majority of Rommel's tanks were believed to have been destroyed.

1,300 U.S. Warships In Invasion Fleet

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—Navy Secretary James Forrestal reported yesterday that the United States naval task force engaged in the invasion of France included more than 1,300 warships of all types. (Actual number of Royal Navy craft involved has not been given but the proportion of warships in the invasion armada was three British to one American and the overall proportion, including auxiliary vessels, was three British to two American.)

J. F. B. Livesay

Former Chief of Canadian Press Dies Suddenly

CLARKSON, Ont., June 15.—(CP)—J. F. B. Livesay, 59, who retired in 1939 after 25 years as general manager of The Canadian Press, died today as he was preparing to get up for the day's work. He had been in his country car since this spring.

Mr. Livesay, who came to Canada from his native Isle of Wight, England, in 1883, was named manager of the newly-formed Western Associated Press in 1907, the pioneer co-operative news-gathering and distributing association in Canada. In 1917, the W.A.P. merged with three eastern Canada associations in the formation of The Canadian Press, serving Canada's daily newspapers from coast to coast.

Mr. Livesay will be buried Saturday.

F.D.R. Outlines International Plan

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today made public the administration's conception of a post-war international peace organization providing for a council representing all nations, to concern itself with the settlement of international disputes and to prevent war.

The president said the organization should include an international court of justice.

"It is our thought," the president said in his statement, "that the organization (for international co-operation) would be a fully representative body with broad responsibilities for promoting and facilitating international co-operation."

The organization, he continued, "would provide for a council, elected annually by the fully representative body of all nations, which would include the four major nations of the world and a suitable number of other nations. The council would consider international disputes and with the prevention of threats to the peace and breaches of the peace."

REGINA, June 15.—The people of Saskatchewan were today urged to vote for the Liberal administration of Premier William J. Patterson, but of Socialists' greatest bid for office in the country polls.

A half-day holiday, favorable weather, independent "man in the street" surveys and heavy advertising campaign led to forecasts that the election would be a close one. The record of the last election, despite the fact that the election campaign had been the spotlight of the Liberal administration, was not the problem of distribution of the party's resources.

Specifically, the people of Saskatchewan are voting today to choose 31 members in 60 constituencies for the legislature. In addition, 100 members of the provincial assembly.

During a press interview held with the 20-man crew, the first Naval District said it was the "T-1" submarine, the first appearance of a German submarine off the North Atlantic fishing banks in two years.

The submarine landed on the northeastern fishing grounds. The "T-1" submarine, which was subject to seven salvos from a deck cannon and then sank.

MOOSE JAW, Sask., June 15

(CP)—Premier Ernest Manning of Alberta said in an address here last night that the principles of Social Credit were being more and more recognized throughout the country as the only practical solution to the problem of scarcity and poverty in a time of plenty.

Speaking in support of Frank T. Talbot, the only Social Credit candidate in today's Saskatchewan general election, Mr. Manning said that the B-29s were capable of striking from "remote bases" and that the B-29s were capable of striking from "remote bases" and that the B-29s were capable of striking from "remote bases."

American Units Invade Saipan

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—American troops have landed on Saipan Island in the Marianas, only 149 statute miles southeast of Tokyo, the Navy department announced today.

A Japanese Imperial headquarters spokesman said today that American troops attempted to land this morning on Saipan and Tinian Islands in the Marianas, 1,500 miles southeast of Tokyo, and indicated the Americans had gained a foothold on the islands.

The communiqué, broadcast by the Japanese Domei News Agency, said "heavy fighting is in progress between Japanese units and enemy forces."

The dispatch followed an earlier report by Domei that American troops twice had attempted to land on Saipan, just north of Tinian in the southern part of the Mariana Islands.

Domei's first broadcast, an English language transmission, said that the Japanese Imperial headquarters was repulsed and in reference to the Japanese communiqué said "heavy fighting is now going on."

Possession of the Marianas, which include the former American island of Guam, would give the United States a base for central Pacific supply routes and open the way for a possible direct drive to the China coast.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—American "Super Fortresses" B-29 bombers attacked Japan proper today in what Gen. George C. Marshall hailed as the opening step in a new type of offensive against the Japanese.

The raid on the enemy's homeland—the first carried out by American airmen since the epic Doolittle raid of 1942—was announced by the war department in a brief statement which gave no details but said only: "B-29 Super-Fortresses of the United States army air force 20th bomber command bombed Japan today."

This first announced raid by the new B-29s came at a time when Allied forces were pushing back the enemy throughout the Pacific. Only today the Japanese navy reported that American forces had landed in the China-Burma-India theatre, the war department disclosed.

The China-Burma-India theatre is the largest theatre covering millions of square miles. But General Marshall pointed out that the B-29s are capable of striking from "remote bases" and that the B-29s are capable of striking from "remote bases."

The department's announcement disclosed for the first time the existence of the 20th Air Force, a new organization which will have jurisdiction over all Super-Fortress activities.

LONDON, June 15.—Huge Allied aerial formations, including about 1,000 Flying Fortresses and Liberators, today struck out again in support of invasion troops in Normandy, hammering German communication and supply routes throughout France.

The strong forces struck from Bordeaux in southwest France to Beauvais north of Paris to follow up two blistering attacks on Le Havre by R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. heavy bombers which concentrated on the German E-moss along the Seine.

Railway junctions, bridges, air-dromes and aircraft assembly plants deep in France were battered by the big four-engined bombers while waves of lightning, Mustang and Thunderbolt dive-bombers and strafed military objectives.

Targets singled out for the heavy daylight assaults, carried out in clear weather, were Nantes and Bordeaux in southwest France.

LONDON, June 15.—One Albanian who will emerge from this war with a sound knowledge of the grain business is the "Fitz" Lt. Sam Lieberman, Edmonton.

An R.C.A.F. bomber pilot, he has temporarily given up flying to supervise the distribution of rice and other food grains to more than 100,000 refugees in the Middle East. Lieberman is in charge of the Middle East Command's central food depot at the Gulf of Aden near the Saudi Arabian border.

Lieberman is in charge of a mail airfield, operating under the Middle East Command, which 10,000 pounds of grain are flown daily for distribution to the affected areas.

Simplify Rules For Treatment Of War Veterans

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—Pensions Minister Mackenzie today announced that an order-in-council had been passed making widespread changes in regulations under which ex-servicemen receive medical and other treatment after discharge.

The minister said the changes were designed to simplify and consolidate existing regulations, to remove certain inequalities, and to make necessary changes in allowances so as to former servicemen or women would be treated fairly as a result of illness incurred or attributable to service.

REDUCE CLASSIFICATIONS
Under the old regulations there were 21 classifications under which an ex-serviceman or woman might receive treatment, he said. These have been reduced to 10, with any former rights to be treated being lost.

"The changes will be of benefit to Canada's veterans as far back as the Northwest Rebellion," said Mr. Mackenzie.

One of the major changes at issue, persons discharged from the military in need of treatment, said the minister. Until last February all under this classification were on hospital allowances of $10.30 weekly for a single man and $14.40 for a man and his wife. In February authority was given to continue pay and allowances of rank, up to a ceiling equivalent to a man's service for the period of one year.

Under the new regulations no matter what the period of service the pay and allowances of rank will continue for a full 12 months period.

MADE RETROACTIVE
Mr. Mackenzie said this regulation was retroactive to June 1, 1943, or to the start of uninterrupted treatment, and that treatment which began within 30 days of military discharge for a condition incurred during service was considered as being "uninterrupted treatment."

If the pension department grants leave beyond 30 days the treatment which would be regarded as "uninterrupted."

A change also was made in treatment. This originally applied only to those who had been awarded pensions from this and the First Great War.

Its terms now have been broadened to include all observation cases—both pensioners and non-pensioners—directed to hospital for observation by the Canadian Pension Commission and to veterans of the Northwest Rebellion who previously were treated under another class.

Nineteen Obtained Refuge in Vatican

VATICAN CITY, June 15.—(AP)—Nineteen Allied soldiers and prisoners of war obtained refuge in Vatican City from the start of the war to the Allied capture of Rome, Archbishop Gustavo Testa, who has headed Vatican activities for prisoners, said yesterday. Among those who got into the Vatican was Lieut. Paul Freyberg, son of Lt. Gen. Sir Bernard Freyberg, commander of New Zealand troops in Italy. The prisoners were released when the 5th Army arrived.

Only Hate Lacking

MOSCOW, June 15.—(CP)—The Allied invasion armies in France have everything they need for victory except hate, according to the Soviet writer Ilya Ehrenburg, writing in "Soviet War News." "It is hard for a man from Manitoba or Texas to understand what Hitler's army is like," he wrote. "This June will bring many changes. The blood of heroes will inspire their fellow countrymen."

Many lines of work which were unknown a generation ago are now commonplace. The automobile mechanic, the radio assembler, the airplane pilot—all are products of the present generation. Other occupations have had their origin far beyond the memory of man. Take pharmacy for example, with its ten thousand years of recorded history. We take considerable pride in being associated with a profession with such a long history. Pharmacy must be of fundamental importance to have so long endured.

DEPRESSION SYSTEM LAID TO LIBERALS

SASKATCHEWAN, June 15.—(CP)—The Liberals are pledged to defend the system that made possible the "incalculable suffering" in the depression years, E. B. Sullivan, Ontario leader of the C.C.F., said here last night at the annual convention of the Saskatchewan C.C.F. delegates in the two-member Saskatchewan constituency in the provincial election today.

Mr. Sullivan said he believed the Liberals were sincere in one thing, that they would support the "so-called" system of free enterprise, which was really "monopoly enterprise."

"Neither the farmer nor the small merchant can turn around without paying tribute to the monopolies," he said.

The socialism of the C.C.F. was no mystery but was clear for all to see in the national and provincial elections, said Mr. Sullivan.

"It bears no relation to anything that may exist in the favored imagination of the old party leaders or in the minds of the C.C.F. members," he said.

Mr. Sullivan said the Liberals would like to have the people believe that the C.C.F. was slipping in Ontario since the 1943 provincial election. The C.C.F. was not slipping for its membership had doubled since the election.

By the election in Hamilton-Norfolk the C.C.F. had gained 25 per cent of the votes as compared with 14 per cent in the 1943 election while the Liberal vote was about half what it had been in the general election, he said.

"It is the Liberals that are slipping out of existence," he said.

CARLYLE, Sask., June 15.—(CP)—Miss Agnes Macphail, C.C.F. member of the Ontario Legislature for York East, said in a Saskatchewan election address here last night it was beneath the dignity of a first minister of a province to make a statement in which Miss Macphail had called the C.C.F. unpatriotic.

Miss Macphail said the statement appeared in an advertisement in the Regina Leader Post June 12.

The last paragraph of the statement, signed by Premier Patterson, said: "May I suggest that you place loyalty to Canada before party in this all-important election which means so much not only to the province but to all Canada, and that you make every personal effort to ensure a clear majority for the Liberals as the one sure way of maintaining democratic freedom for you, the people of Saskatchewan."

CITES 'REAL WEALTH'

Miss Macphail said production, goods and services were the real wealth of the nation. Only four per cent of Canada's business was in the hands of the few big banks, she said, and the gold standard had little or nothing to do with it. She said the power of the banks to withhold or expand credit should be taken away.

C.C.F. TO GOVERN BY 'COMMISSION'

LEMBURG, Sask., June 15.—(CP)—The C.C.F. system is to be governed by a commission of seven or eleven men, whom the Liberals prefer to let the people elect themselves, said Federal Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner at a meeting here last night.

Saskatchewan Voters Going To Polls Today

dillon, three members will be chosen at a later date to represent Saskatchewan's fighting men overseas and another member will be elected in Cumberland constituency on June 24, to make up the legislature of 35 members.

Actually, however, the voters they cast may touch off a new political era in Canada.

Party chieftains continued to exude confidence for a victory for their parties, with the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation led by the Progressive Conservative, and minister of the T. C. Douglas, openly predicting a landslide that will sweep at least 40 of its candidates into office, and the Liberal party claims that it will win 25 seats of 37 seats. The chief hope of the third major party in the race—Progressive Conservative—under leadership of expert farmer Rupert Ramey—was that the outcome will be so close that it will wind up with the balance of power in the legislature.

LAST LEGISLATURE
The standing in the last legislature was Liberals 33, C.C.F. 10, and Progressives 12. In the 1938 election 44,223 ballots were cast, casting 200,370 for the Liberals, 82,566 for the C.C.F., 60,720 for Social Credit, 52,366 for Conservatives and 35,240 for other groups.

Political observers were busy making last-minute appraisals of the election. The Liberal victory will have not only on the province but on the country as a whole.

There were some who believed that a C.C.F. victory might conceivably release a tide that might spill over the borders of Saskatchewan and into the rest of the province, future, Socialist administrations in the province.

SWIFT CURRENT, Sask., June 15.—(CP)—J. G. Taggart, minister of agriculture, said in his campaign in the Swift current constituency that he had an address at Neville, Wyman and Blumhagen.

Mr. Taggart placed the record of the Liberal administration in Saskatchewan in the light of the province's economic and social situation.

SERVICES INCREASED
During the Liberal regime, he contended, though farm debts had been considerably reduced, social services had increased. Even that laborer and legislator, Mr. Taggart, said, the C.C.F. had made advances under the Patterson government.

In the matter of health Saskatchewan has made considerable gains for its vigorous campaign on disease prevention. Complete hospitalization for tuberculosis patients is one of this province's most notable successes.

It was still the only province with an complete plan for the tuberculosis. On May 1 he began his program of medical care for cancer patients. If these were not things any administration could be proud of, he would like to know why, he said.

SAYS SASK. LOSER BY REDISTRIBUTION

SASKATCHEWAN, Sask., June 15.—(CP)—Alfred M. Banca, Progressive Conservative member of parliament for Saskatoon, said in an address last night that the province stands to lose 14 per cent of its representation in the Commons through redistribution as result of failure of the Dominion and provincial Liberal governments to see that Saskatchewan got a fair share of war industries.

He spoke in support of Rupert Ramey, Progressive Conservative provincial leader, and H. O. Wright, nominees in Saskatoon constituency.

Mr. Banca said redistribution of federal assets would be made on the basis of population, and he said Saskatchewan had been "denuded" of more than 200,000 of its former population by the concentration of war industries in eastern Canada and British Columbia.

Similarly, he charged there had been an "equality of sacrifice" as between provinces in the calling up of men for the armed services.

Saskatchewan had been required to send more than 10 times as many men in a given age group for military call-up than Quebec, he said, and there had not been a word of complaint from the Saskatchewan government.

POPULATION 'DENUDED'
Mr. Banca said redistribution of federal assets would be made on the basis of population, and he said Saskatchewan had been "denuded" of more than 200,000 of its former population by the concentration of war industries in eastern Canada and British Columbia.

the provinces of British Columbia and Alberta. The movement already are strong, and leave the C.C.F. knocking loudly at the doors of Ottawa, stronghold of Liberalism and Conservatism since Confederation.

BOTH YOUNG AND OLD

However, they point out that the election is not a very good test of public opinion on the question of free enterprise as against Socialism because the C.C.F. in election manifestos and on the platform, avoided making Socialism the chief issue in the campaign. In fact, C.C.F. leaders frankly admitted that there were many principles of Socialism that could not be achieved in the provincial field and made it clear that the C.C.F. had no intention of socializing agriculture—a development that placed the Liberals and Conservatives in the position where they talked more about Socialism than the C.C.F. did.

Instead of dwelling on socialist principles as they are generally accepted, the C.C.F. concentrated chiefly on promises to improve conditions in the fields of agriculture, social welfare, education, labor, natural resources and industrial development, and on many other plans that are also in the platforms of the old line parties, differing only in that each party claimed that it can do a better job of putting them into effect.

Thus, many observers believed that a C.C.F. victory in Saskatchewan would not necessarily be a victory for socialism, since the C.C.F. has not asked for a mandate to institute socialism in the province. It has asked for a mandate to improve the conditions of the province, which would not necessarily mean that Saskatchewan voters rejected completely the idea of a socialized economy.

UNUSUAL ELEMENT
For the first time, candidates who have a small but sufficient majority at the close of counting today, will remain uncertain whether they will have a seat in the new government. An unusual element in the vote from Saskatchewan voters with the armed forces.

It was learned from other villages that the woman, now in a British Columbia town hospital, was leading Guitling and hostess to German troops stationed in the village for many months. Her gun and ammunition were German.

A girl sniper, identified as Myra, was captured by American troops in one coastal sector, but before she had wounded several of their comrades. Myra's technique was to smile at the Allied soldiers and when they approached her to shoot them at close quarters. Allied officers said.

On the other side of the picture in the province. They will vote for candidates in their home ridings, and with "several thousand voters" the services, upsets are possible when the "soldier vote" is added to the returns to be counted today.

Both Young and Old Armed Women Are Menace To Allied Troops in France

LONDON, June 15.—(CP)—Armed women, some German, are a thorn in the side of the Allied soldiers fighting in Normandy.

Gen. Montgomery himself warned the troops of the menace of these women snipers, and already two sharp-shooting pro-Axis women are among the enemy prisoners of war who have arrived in England.

One of these is a gentle-mannered French widow who was said to have fought by the side of the Germans. She fired five bullets toward her gun. She sat at the bedroom window of her home in a small French village, sniping at British naval parties who had occupied the town.

TAKEN BY CANUCKS
Canadian assault troops attacked the house and found it barricaded. Eventually, with some casualties, they took the strong point and the woman was wounded at the foot of the staircase.

POSTPONEMENT of tonight's Senior Baseball League attraction between Dodgers and U.S. Signals due to continued rainfall, throws the schedule two games into arrears, for Tuesday's Arrow-Yank affair also had been set over. There was a four-game holdup in June, 1943, no ball set played at Renfrew between the 15th and 25th.

All International League fixtures were rained out yesterday, but possibly the heat generated by the torrid pace being set in the American absorbs all surplus moisture in and around cities in the Harbidge circuit. In any event the merry scramble for places went on as usual Wednesday.

New York Yankees, with the help of rookie Walter Dubiel managed to win from Washington 6-2 and jumped from seventh to fourth place as a result. Chicago White Sox lost to the high-flying St. Louis Browns, but nevertheless moved up ahead of Cleveland simply because the Indians dropped two.

The Browns are on top, but with the hot breath of the Boston Red Sox on their necks only a game away. Connie Mack's Athletics are in last place, but are less than seven games away from the leading St. Louis club in spite of two losses yesterday.

Cincy Reds Down Pirates By Eleventh Inning Rally

CINCINNATI, June 15.—(AP)—An 11th inning rally pulled a National League game out of the fire for the Cincinnati Reds Wednesday night and gave them a 3-2 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Rain stopped play twice and the game ended long after midnight.

After the Pirates had gone ahead in their half of the 11th on a walk and Bob Elliott's sacrifice double, the Reds' side with a triple and Eddie Miller sent him home with a double. Miller beat the throw to third on Ray Mueller's broué. Eitel Crabtree was walked intentionally, and Woody Williams came through with a single for the winning run. ## Sixteen Hits For 23 Bases Against Sox

CHICAGO, June 15.—(AP)—St. Louis Browns increased their American League lead to a full game Wednesday night by ganging up on two White Sox pitchers for 16 hits and a 10-3 victory before 24,863.

The Browns kayped Johnny Humphries, who was making his season's first start, in the seventh, and polished off the frolic against Gordon Maltzberger, Chicago's ace reliever.

Behind the barrage, which totaled 23 bases, Nelson Potter pitched for an season's sixth victory against four losses.

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP)—This week's Red Cross Golf Show at Wykagil had more than $10,000 advance ticket sales plus $28,000 worth of program ads. . . Wonder how the no-journeymen U.S.G.A. feels about that? . . . Slings!

Sammy Baugh turned in times of 18.8 and 12.6 seconds in the 100-yard Roping Contest at a recent Abilene, Tex., rodeo. Football folks say he always was handy at throwing that cow hide.

What could be worse? A couple of lines from a verified tribute to Jean Kennedy, 20 years president of the Women's International Bowling Congress, were: "So they got up a bowling club with snacks between each frame. But gradually the snacks were off, as on they played the game." . . . And that probably explains why a lot of the girls continue to bowl.

Eddie Walikus, former Cubs, first sacker now in New Guinea, is credited about his club's standing. "Every time we get a box score out here I have to sneak around corners." . . . Eddie writes.

Manager of Senators
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Senator's trip topped from seventh place to second in 1943, and I can't say why they shouldn't get out of the second division this trip, especially under the conditions.

We have a half dozen excellent right-hand pitchers—Emil Leonard, Roger Wolff, John Niggeling, Early Wynn, Milo Candini and Alex. Carraquel—and a remarkable little left-hander in Milton Heffer. These in addition to the southpaw, Wilfred Lefebvre, who pinch-hits, and San-

Rick Ferrell is a skillful hand of trick deliveries. Our catching was set with Fernin Guerra, another Cuban, backing up the veteran, but we are even better off behind the plate since Al Evans came from the Navy. NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y., June 15.—(AP)—Although he finished eighth, five strokes over par and 15 strokes off Sam Byrd's winning pace, in last week's 72-hole invitational Philadelphia, Byron Nelson of Toledo was installed yesterday as a 4-1 favorite to cop the $13,353 Red Cross golf marathon starting today at Wykagil.

Torres had to play first when Joe Kubel went out with battered ribs and Eddie Butka with a bruised head. Second baseman George Myatt has hit with surprising vigor.

SULLIVAN IMPROVED
Shortstop Johnny Sullivan has been phenomenal—perhaps the most improved ball player in the league. Luis Suarez, another Cuban, has a fine pair of hands at third base, but has yet to show us we can hit. Miles Layne can play either second or first.

Our outfield has only to hit—and will, although Roberto Ortiz's long ball has not been much in evidence. Stanley Spence, George Washington Case and Jake Powell give Washington speed and a stout defense in the outer precincts.

Although he won no more than six out of 13 in our home stand, the average attendance was 10,000. Baseball is in for a big season in its third year.

Jim McNally Showed Them How to Run a Modern Arena

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK, June 15.—James McNally, one-time street car motorman, spoke of centrifugal refrigeration with the intimacy of an engineer. Jim McNally put the controls of his trolley in 1897 to show the world how to run a modern arena. Breaking in at old Madison Square Garden, he made the new model of all amphitheatres. More came from the four corners of the globe to see him shift seats. His methods were copied everywhere. Few did more for the amusement-loving and thrill-seeking public and at the same time than Jim McNally. He died of a heart attack at 69. All the Garden management had to do was look to Jim McNally. With Superintendent McNally running the works, the show started on time regardless of how heavy the schedule. So far, the revue concluded at 4:15 on a Saturday afternoon. McNally's crew removed the stage at the Ninth Avenue end, laid the wooden floor, polished it, put up the baskets, cleaned the seats, set up the additional seats, and the doors opened for basketball at 7. McNally once removed a football ski jump at midnight on Saturday, waged caterpillars from the Boston Garden that hockey would be played Sunday afternoon—and won. McNally perfected flawless schedules for quickly converting the Garden for the circus, fights, basketball, track and field, rodeo, ice shows, ski carnivals, horse shows, dog shows, chicken shows, theatrical productions, political rallies, meetings. The good-natured Irishman rebuilt everything but the Garden raft to facilitate the movement of the spectacular. He raised a balcony to permit passage of an elephant, mabouf sealed flanges on its back. NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y., June 15.—A club-kwinger in blue slacks, yellow sports shirt and white visor, teed off today in the $13,333 war bond Red Cross open golf championship over the Wyckagony Country Club course, wondering sadly if he will be able to complete the four-day tourney.

At any moment the word may come "Your father is dead," and Sammy Byrd will break away from the tournament and return to Birmingham, Ala. That's what the young man's dad wants. Brooded, brown-haired Byrd would rather not be playing. With reluctance, he entered last week's Philadelphia Inquirer competition in the Pennsylvania metropolis, where he won the title of 1943. But Sammy, former New York Yankee outfielder, is carrying on—under instructions from his dying father, whose Byrd, who from his sick bed told Sammy, "There's nothing you can do here for me. You'll make me happy by going out and playing the best golf you know how to." RUTH'S UNDERSTUDY

SAMMY, former baseball under study to the great Babe Ruth, did just as his father requested. Playing with a butterfly-froed smile, he attained the greatest golf of his career at Philadelphia, winning the tournament in a walkway—for his dad. He finished Sunday with a 274 for 72 holes of medal play, seven why he kept the lone youngster at the Fair Grounds. Jones couldn't tell his boy why out of 30 yearlings he picked him as the slickest. The answer is that he knows horses and obviously they know him. At least he ran for him, which is the main idea. "He's a nervous colt," quoth Jones, speaking of his Derby and Preakness winner "way back there and down there in dear old New Orleans." "I want to concentrate on him. I treat him like a faithful pet. This yearling has brooded and I like him. He's by a British sire called Hyperion, a cup winner. His name is Penny." The name Penny was suggested to Mrs. Warren Wright, who named her champion runners, by the Calumet office secretary, Mrs. Margaret Clark.

When credit for Calumet's phenomenal success is being distributed, Owner Wright deserves an assist for something besides furnishing the harknroll. Broader Wright had nothing to do with Penicillin II being made with Hyperion, but he had the good judgment to purchase the mare in foal to the English Derby record-holder. Wright previously demonstrated that he was a skilled hand in the selection of brood mares. He purchased "Dashville," which presented him with the little dark chestnut that was Whitwary.

Hyperion, now 14, is one of the most successful sires in turf history. He has been the top English sire three years in a row. Walter P. Chrysler paid $18,500 for a full brother of Penny. Arthur Hancock considered Hyperion the best looking yearling he ever offered for sale, but serious illness affected his racing. That's the gamble you take in buying thoroughbreds. A man who puts as much money in training as Warren Wright deserves to have smart ones.

BIRD, now preoccupied at the Plum Hollow club in Detroit, was an outfielder with the Yankees from 1929 through '34, after which he became property of the Cincinnati Reds for two seasons. Reported to have been the toughest hitter in baseball or golf? He replied emphatically, "golf!"

He explained that natural ability can enable clubs like Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams to break into major league baseball and become stars almost immediately. But years of experience are necessary to become prominent in golf. "After which," the ultimate in concentration is required on every green." While waiting on the porch, Sammy agreed to meet Craig Wood in a special Red Cross match, probably at Detroit on July 4. Fred Corcoran, tournament manager of the P.G.A., will announce the definite date and date later. Sammy went into the locker room and telephoned Babe Ruth at a New York hospital. He cheered Ruth, despite the lead in his own heart.

BIRD, now preoccupied at the Plum Hollow club in Detroit, was an outfielder with the Yankees from 1929 through '34, after which he became property of the Cincinnati Reds for two seasons. Reported to have been the toughest hitter in baseball or golf? He replied emphatically, "golf!"

He explained that natural ability can enable clubs like Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams to break into major league baseball and become stars almost immediately. But years of experience are necessary to become prominent in golf. "After which," the ultimate in concentration is required on every green." While waiting on the porch, Sammy agreed to meet Craig Wood in a special Red Cross match, probably at Detroit on July 4. Fred Corcoran, tournament manager of the P.G.A., will announce the definite date and date later. Sammy went into the locker room and telephoned Babe Ruth at a New York hospital. He cheered Ruth, despite the lead in his own heart.

CLYDE PASSEAU was pitching for the Nationals when the American Leaguers went to bat in the last ball of the ninth in the All-Star Game at Detroit, July 8, 1941. The score was 5 to 3 against the Americans.

Frank Hayes popped out to Ken Keltner, batting for Edgar Smith, filling the ninth green of the 8,000-yard Wyckagony course. He had just finished feeling out the fairways and greens in a casual fashion that would not interfere with the women's tournament.

He discussed the course of the men's tourney, which opened today. His bearing did not betray his hidden grief, with which only close friends were acquainted. He said it was a "night" course, requiring great accuracy in driving. For that reason, he believed that Craig Wood of Mamaroneck, N.Y., who finished second at Philadelphia, had the best chance to win. This, despite the fact that Byron Nelson was top choice at 1-4 in the New York bet-up at Toots Shors.

Inquest is Held In Northern Death

MELLENAN.—An inquest was held here Monday into the death of Mrs. Marie Savard, of Kahlens, who was killed by the east going freight train on June 10, seven miles from here. The engineer, P. Crowell and fireman, R. Christopher were exonerated of blame. The jury consisted of Mr. T. Houldie, P. Giroux, D. McMillan, A. C. LaRiviere, A. Royer and V. Frey.

The Elks held a special meeting on Sunday night but did not reach a decision on the rebuilding of the hall. The hall was one of the best in the north country and its destruction by a fire a few days ago was a great loss to the community. The hall was a fine example of modern building, with many valuable tables, library, piano and Royal Purple, and a bathroom equipped with the best of the best.

According to reports the Jasper-Buff Highway is now in good condition. Fishing along the road is reported as good.

On Second Reading Dept. of Veterans' Affairs Supported by Parties As House Debates Measure

By FRANK FLAHERTY

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—Ex-soldiers training for peace should be treated as generously as soldiers training for war, Mr. L. St. Laurent, Liberal member for Vancouver North, said yesterday in the Commons during debate on second reading of a bill to create a department of veterans' affairs.

The measure drew support from speakers for all parties who said they considered it sound practice to concentrate all activities relating to the care and re-establishment of service personnel in one government agency.

Dr. Herbert Bruce (P.C.—Toronto) said he was in favour of the recommendations of the Canadian Medical Association on the organization of health services within the government.

DEPT. NATIONAL HEALTH
The measure drew support from speakers for all parties who said they considered it sound practice to concentrate all activities relating to the care and re-establishment of service personnel in one government agency.

Another of Dr. Bruce's suggestions was that all medical and health services be administered by that department and that the department of veterans' affairs should be created to take over the care and re-establishment of service personnel.

CRITICAL OF REJECTION
Dr. Bruce was critical of the government for rejecting the proposal of Dr. Wilfrid Pritchard of Montreal to extend the jurisdiction of the National Health Department to include the care and re-establishment of service personnel.

He said that the government's decision to reject the proposal was a disappointment to the veterans' community, and that the government should reconsider its decision.

Study of Resources In North Is Planned

OTTAWA, June 15.—(CP)—Studies of soil conditions and resources of the Northwest Territories and Yukon Territory are being planned by the federal government, it was announced yesterday.

The department recently outlined a plan of extensive geological and mapping surveys to be carried out in the area during the summer months.

The agriculture and fisheries departments will cooperate in the surveys.

As a result of reports made earlier, a soil survey will establish a sub-subregional status, and a search board, scientific branch of the fisheries department, will conduct studies of fisheries in the Mackenzie river basin.

Inspection will be made of forestry and grazing land conditions, as well as animal and plant life, in scheduled areas in the Northwest Territories and Yukon Territory.

A special study of forestry and grazing land conditions, as well as animal and plant life, in scheduled areas in the Northwest Territories and Yukon Territory.

It was in this region, north of the Mackenzie river, that the first German troops landed on June 15, 1944.

One theory advanced for the reason that the German troops are no longer in the area is that they were sent to the Northwest Territories to conduct a search for uranium ore.

The Chinese commander announced last night that Japanese forces driving on Changsha had crossed the Yangtze river and were in the Hunan province stronghold, and a spokesman said the enemy had been driven back to the river.

Wallace Urges Independence For Asiatics

NEW YORK, June 15.—(CP)—Vice-President Henry Wallace in an article published last night advocated post-war independence for Asia's "subject and colonial" people and said the United States should take "a positive, progressive policy toward this area."

While the British and Dutch governments and the French Committee of National Liberation have given evidence that they recognize the need of reviving their colonial policies in the Far East, Wallace said, "the United States should take a positive, progressive policy toward this area."

Wallace said that the United States should take a positive, progressive policy toward this area.
